

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

United Nations Development
Programme (UNDP)

Khon Kaen University (KKU)

Declaration of Partnership

on the Promotion of Integrity and Anti-Corruption in Thailand

In order to engage the public about the moral consequences of inaction and to raise public awareness about reducing corruption, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and Khon Kaen University (KKU) agree on a Partnership to facilitate a closer collaboration between the two organizations to promote youth empowerment and the collective participation to promote integrity in the Thai society.

Under this Partnership, the two organizations agree to cooperate on the following activities:

- Establish a regular dialogue between the Parties in the area of anti-corruption and integrity promotion;
- The development and implementation of joint, anti-corruption activities, public advocacy campaigns, and programmes; and,
- The exchange of experience, know-how and knowledge in raising national anti-corruption awareness and building capacities of relevant stakeholders.

UNDP and Khon Kaen University will mutually agree on the implementation of common activities and share progress reports on a regular basis.

22 November 2013, Khon Kaen University

For Khon Kaen University

Assoc. Prof. Kittichai Triratanasirichai
President, Khon Kaen University

For UNDP Thailand

Mr. Luc Stevens
UNDP Resident Representative