

Agreement on Academic and Educational Exchange
Between
Faculty of Education, Khon Kaen University,
Thailand
And
Faculty of Education, Indonesia University of Education, Indonesia

Faculty of Education, Khon Kaen University in Thailand and Faculty of Education, Indonesia University of Education, Indonesia. Hereby conclude this agreement to develop their friendship, and to promote academic and educational exchange between the two universities.

1. Based on a spirit of respect for each other, each university will be engaged in the following activities:
 - (1) Exchange of Faculty members and research fellows
 - (2) Exchange of students
 - (3) Conducting cooperative research, and hosting academic conferences and research meetings
 - (4) Exchange of academic information, publications, and other sorts of information
 - (5) Other activities agreed on by both of universities
2. Exchange of faculty members will be carried out on demand, according to the following conditions:
 - (1) Travel expenses are paid by visitors.
 - (2) Expenses for their stay, including accommodation charges, are paid by visitors, with the host university actively cooperating with the visitors in applying for scholarships or research fellowships.
3. Exchange of students will be carried out as follows:
 - (1) The regular term for an exchange program is one year, but can be flexibly changed if necessary.
 - (2) The number of exchange students to come can be limited by the host university if seen necessary.
 - (3) The credits given to a student at the host university will be acknowledged by his or her home university.
 - (4) Exchange students (including graduate students) studying at Khon Kaen University or at Indonesia University of Education are registered as special visiting undergraduate students or special visiting graduate students.

- (5) Appropriate exchange students are to be chosen from applicants by their home university, which then recommends these students to the host university.
- (6) Exchange students studying at Khon Kaen University should have the ability to communicate in Thai or English. Exchange students studying at Indonesia University of Education should have the ability to communicate in Japanese and English.
- (7) Up to three exchange students sent from their home university are exempted by the host university from paying their entrance examination fee, admission fee and tuition. Except for these exempted students, all other exchange students pay their own fees and tuition. The home university recommends the candidates for such exemption to the host university.
- (8) Exchange students pay their own expenses for travel, accommodation, insurance and visa application, but the host university actively cooperates with the students in applying for scholarships.
4. Cooperative research will be conducted as asked for, based on the voluntary requests of an individual researcher.
5. Exchange of academic resources and publications will be available any time as required.
6. This agreement becomes valid on the day of its conclusion, for a term of three years. At the end of this term, it will automatically be extended for two years if no alternative is proposed. Reform or abolition of this agreement will occur according to consultations between the two universities.
