

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT Between
The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
of
Khon Kaen University in Khon Kaen, Thailand
And
Nanzan University in Nagoya, Japan

This memorandum of agreement between the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences of Khon Kaen University (hereafter referred to as K KU) in Khon Kaen, Thailand, and Nanzan University (hereafter referred to as NU) in Nagoya, Japan, signifies the commitment of the two parties to provide educational opportunities for the international students.

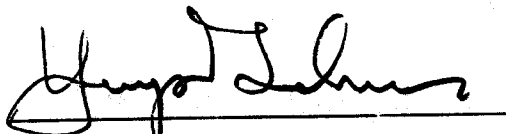

1. NU desires that students of good standing have an opportunity to participate in the programs offered by K KU. Therefore, each year, NU will organize Nanzan Asia Program at K KU.
2. NU will pay K KU, at the beginning of the program, tuition, room and board fee, and administrative fee for each NU student.
3. NU and K KU will negotiate and adjust the program cost six months prior to the initiation of the program each year.
4. K KU agrees to grant NU students all right, privileges, and services available to its regular students.
5. NU will take the following responsibilities for the students:

-NU will provide guidance to NU students so that they will obey the laws of Thailand; particularly immigration regulations, which prohibit students from engaging in activities other than those specified for the short-term visa.

-NU will require students to enroll in a health insurance program applicable in the host country.

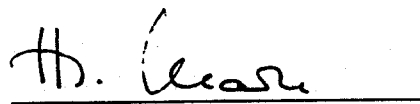

6. At KKU, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences and, at NU, the Office of International Education will be responsible in coordinating this program.
7. This agreement becomes effective upon signing by both parties and may be terminated by mutual consent or by twelve months notice in writing by either party. Any proposals to change the terms of this agreement should be negotiated and officially approved by both institutions.
