

AGREEMENT FOR COLLABORATIVE PROGRAMS BETWEEN
FACULTY OF DENTISTRY, KHON KAEN UNIVERSITY, THAILAND
AND
HARVARD SCHOOL OF DENTAL MEDICINE, USA

The Faculty of Dentistry, Khon Kaen University and the Harvard School of Dental Medicine have agreed upon promoting academic cooperation and scholarly exchange between the two institutions, including the following activities:

- A) basic and clinical research;
- B) graduate studies, continuing education, seminars, conferences, and workshops;
- C) faculty and staff exchange programs;
- D) sharing experiences and expertise concerning administration and management;
- E) Other activities that both institutions agree to be of mutual benefit.

Implementation of exchange or other kinds of operation based on this agreement shall be dealt with between the departments or faculties concerned, on a case-by-case basis. A specific plan shall be worked out for each joint activity, including funding for services rendered and implementation of any joint activities. The plan shall ensure that appropriate arrangements for working, living and maintenance expenses are made before the arrival of a faculty member or a student at the host institution.

Acceptance of faculty and students for exchange programs will be at the discretion of the department program director at the host institution.

Any results of collaborative research will be subject to the policies of both institutions. Use of the name or logo of Harvard University or the Harvard School of Dental Medicine is restricted and must be approved by the Office of the Dean of the Harvard School of Dental Medicine prior to release or publication.

This agreement becomes effective upon the dates of signatures and will be valid for three years. During the year 2017, we will consider a renewal for a third three year period. This agreement is subject to revisions, renewal or cancellation by mutual consent.
