MEMORANDUM UNDERSTANDING REGARDING
THE EXCHANGE OF ELECTIVE STUDENTS BETWEEN
FACULTY OF MEDICINE, KHON KAEN UNIVERSITY AND

FACULTY OF MEDICINE, THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

This Memorandum of Understanding is made pursuant to the Agreement for Academic Exchange and Cooperation between the Faculty of Medicine, Khon Kaen University, Khon Kaen, Thailand (hereinafter referred to as KKU) and the Faculty of Medicine, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, HKSAR, China (hereinafter referred to as CUHK) that was signed on 1 December 2006. Both institutions agree to implement a programme to exchange elective students according to the following provisions:

1. The purpose of the exchange programme is to provide opportunities for the students of each institution to gain international experience by completing part of their education at the Host Institution, thereby fostering goodwill and mutual understanding between Thailand and HKSAR.
2. Each institution shall annually nominate up to four (4) undergraduate students as exchange students to the partner institution. The period of exchange shall be 4 to 6 weeks depending on the programmes.
3. Each institution will determine the procedures to be applied for accepting exchange students. Exchange students must satisfy the admission requirements of the Host Institution.
4. The Host Institution shall provide information to the Home Institution on the elective performance of each exchange student at the completion of the exchange.
5. Exchange students will pay normal tuition and fees to the Home Institution in accordance with the policies of that institution. Neither institution will make charges upon the other or upon the exchange students for tuition or application fees.
6. Exchange students shall be subject to the rules, regulations and discipline of the Host Institution and all relevant local laws.
7. Exchange students shall be responsible for arranging their own accommodation. Both institutions will do their best to assist exchange students in finding accommodation by providing such information as is appropriate.
8. Exchange students will be responsible for personal health and hospitalization insurance coverage. Any medical expenses that exceed the coverage provided by such insurance shall be borne by the exchange student and his/her family.
9. Exchange students will be responsible for making their own international and domestic travel arrangements and associated costs, as well as for expenses involving housing, meals, study materials, local transportation, personal expenses, passport, visa applications and all other general living expenses.

10. Each institution shall designate a liaison officer to develop and coordinate the specific activities agreed upon. The designated liaison officers for the purposes of this Memorandum shall be:

Khon Kaen University
Associate Dean for International Affairs
Faculty of Medicine

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Associate Dean (Student Affairs),
Faculty of Medicine

Currently: Prof. Witoon Prasertcharoensuk Currently: Prof. Michael Tam

11. While each institution undertakes to bring to the notice of their students, the rules and regulations of the Host Institution, notwithstanding anything else in this Memorandum, each institution acknowledges that the other is not liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense whatsoever, incurred by or attributable to any action or omission by any of the students exchanged in accordance with this Memorandum.
12. Neither institution shall be in breach of this Memorandum or be liable for any failure or delay in performance of any duties under this Memorandum arising from or attributable to causes beyond the institution's control that could not have been avoided by the exercise of due care, including, but not limited to, acts of God; natural disasters; riots; war; epidemics; terrorist activities; government restrictions; failure of suppliers, subcontractors, or carriers; or the like. The impacted institution shall give the other institution notice of the failure or delay as soon as possible.
13. This Memorandum shall take effect from the date of the last signature and shall be in force during the term of the Agreement for Academic Exchange and Cooperation between KKU and CUHK. The Memorandum may be modified by mutual written consent of the two institutions.
14. The Memorandum may be terminated by either institution provided that six (6) months written notice is given to the other institution. In the event of cancellation of this Memorandum, both institutions shall provide all normal support services as outlined herein for the current group of exchange students until the end of their exchange.
